Electronic Magnifiers

These magnifiers work by passing a video signal from the miniature cameras to your TV by connection to the Scart Socket.

If you want to use them as stand alone and separate to your domestic TV then you will need to use another TV monitor. However with the reducing cost of TV's this means you can read whilst someone else is watching TV. When connected switching on will auto switch TV to AV channel

This model is a 3x magnifier and electronic reading aid in one unit. So it can be used to read the bigger print of say Headlines. Also has red line to help you to track along. 11x Magnification at 1 metre on 26" TV

Typoscopes

Text actually covers only a small percentage of the area of the paper it is written on, the remainder is empty space. The use of local task lighting can cause glare from the reflection of the white or blank space. Typescopes cover the majority of the page leaving a small window through which to view the text. They can also be helpful in tracking along lines of text particularly when using high powered magnifiers which have a reduced field of view.

Our typescopes can be rotated so the viewing window can be used horizontally or vertically.

They also have an additional narrow window to act as a signature or addressing guide.
